

Anne REYMOND

Indoors Trompe l'œil

Some twelve years ago, Anne Reymond trained at IPEDEC, Paris and subsequently opened her studio in Southern France, near Collioure. Light there is definitely matchless.

She creates delicate ambiances adding visual pleasure to various living spaces both public and private and takes great pleasure in painting the many surprises life keeps in store for all of us.

She has been exhibiting regularly for the last ten years in Paris and Southern France, from Toulouse and Bordeaux to Nice and Antibes.

<http://www.atelierannereymond.com>